The 21 Best-Smelling Winter Candles I've Ever Purchased

by ERIN FITZPATRICK

As I've mentioned before, I've taken a keen interest in making my WFH space as cute and efficient as possible this year. As I type this, I have a few key things handy: a chai latte, headphones, an aesthetically pleasing lamp, and some beauty products like lip balm and a face mist. But my favorite desk item is definitely a candle. It really helps me create a serene space that's enjoyable and fun to work in, and that's where this story comes in.

I'm a sucker for any and all winter-themed candles that remind me of the holiday season—no matter how cheesy they may be. Give me all of your scents of pine, fir, amber, mulled wine, vanilla, spices, eucalyptus, and more, and I'll be one happy camper (minus the need to actually go camping in the woods). Scroll down to shop my favorite winter candles of all time.

P.F. Candle Co. Soy Candle in Amber and Moss ($20)

I've owned multiple scents from P.F. Candle Co., and I've enjoyed them all. However, I'm quite partial to the Amber and Moss version that smells like a lovely forest.

The 21 best-smelling winter candles

2020 - 12

Diptyque Feu de Bois/Wood Fire Candle ($36)

You can't write a list of the best candles without including cult-favorite Diptyque. This one is dubbed Wood Fire, and it's exactly what it sounds like. Perfect for cozy winter nights.

Le Labo Santal 26 Classic Candle ($75)

If you don't want to take my word for it, consider that this Le Labo scent has dozens of glowing reviews on Nordstrom's website. It boasts all the best whiffs of winter: amber, cocoa, vanilla, cedar, spices, musk, and sandalwood.

Apotheke Holiday Candle ~~($30)~~ $29

Call me a sucker, but anything called "Holiday Candle" will definitely get my attention. I love this minimalist ceramic vase as well as the fig, cypress, and Assam tea notes.

H&M Scented Candle With Cork Lid ($6)

I bought this candle with my latest H&M online shopping haul, and I'm definitely glad I did. The fresh eucalyptus smell is lovely, and the $6 price was even better.

Anecdote Candles Après Ski Candle \(\$34\)

Anecdote's cute candle jars make clear exactly what to expect from each scent. With spruce and cypress, it smells like the best après ski lunch in the mountains.

Wave Murano Glass Vino Scented Candle \(\$75\)

The perfect example of a candle becoming a mini work of art, this beautiful Wave Murano Glass candle smells like mulled wine on Christmas Eve.

H&M Scented Candle in Glass Holder ($3)

This affordable H&M candle smells like pleasant white lilies. I think three of these in a row would look so cute on a tabletop.

Otherland Gilded Fallen Fir Scented Holiday Candle ($36)

This candle is made with a clean-burning mix of soy and coconut waxes and is free of parabens and phthalates. This aroma has notes of balsam fir, winter spice, and musk.

Diptyque Ambre Scented Candle ($36)

Another one of my favorites from Diptyque, this one smells like woods, patchouli, and spices.

Overose Pink-Anthurium Scented Candle ($58)

This one smells like the experience of growing up picking berries in a meadow next to your house (not that I would actually know). It boasts notes of black currant berries, rose petals, and caladium leaf.

HVN Tarzan Leopard Rainforest Scented Candle ($65)

This one is a very cute gift for the fashion lover in your life because it boasts one of HVN's signature prints usually found on its dresses. It has lovely earthy and woody aromas.

Claus Porto Deco Cedar and Eucalyptus-Scented Candle ($75)

This candle is from the chicest boutique in Porto, Portugal. I'm obsessed with its cedar and eucalyptus fragrances.

Voluspa Japonica French Cade Lavender Petite Embossed Glass Jar Candle ($12)

Aside from the cute jar, this candle is a winner because of the heavenly lavender smell. I especially like to burn it in the evenings because lavender can help you fall asleep (but not before blowing out the candle, of course!).

La Montaña Galán De Noche Candle ($38)

I can't resist a beautiful candle vase. This Night-Scented Jasmine fragrance is inspired by "life in a remote Valencian village, where [you're] surrounded by mountains, breathing in the clean and fresh air," according to the brand.

Illume Holiday Vanity Candle Tin ($22)

Again, I can't resist a good holiday-themed candle. This soy wax candle smells like cozying up to a wood-burning fireplace.

Cancelled Plans It's Freezing Outside Candle ($32)

This fab candle is made with coconut and apricot waxes and has wonderful essences of fir, pine, cedar, and patchouli.

Henry Rose Jake's House \(\$65\)

Our EIC is a fan of this candle, which has notes of fresh marine, peony, jasmine, and musk.

Marie Daage White Flower Scented Candle \(\$90\)

This porcelain goblet is almost as good as the scent itself, which smells like white flowers.

Maison La Bougie Roma Scented Candle ($125)

For the most discerning candle-lover in your life, this beauty has notes of vetiver and musk.
